MORE THAN STITES & HARBISON

Prior to Stites & Harbison, Olivia spent six years as a litigator at a different firm in Northern Kentucky. Before law school, she interned with Legal Aid of the Bluegrass, assisting the organization with Spanish-speaking client intake and translating legal documents (such as marriage and birth certificates) from Spanish to English.

Since 2019, Olivia has written an “Appellate Update” for Kentucky Defense Counsel’s biannual publication, Common Defense. The purpose of the update is to highlight a recent Kentucky appellate case that is significant to defense attorneys and their clients.

Olivia is a Northern Kentucky native and enjoys traveling, attending concerts and sporting events, and spending time with her family and friends.
